FACT SHEET

It is Multiplex's policy that all of our activities are conducted with the highest standards of honesty and integrity and in compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements. Multiplex is committed to corporate social responsibility which means we want to achieve commercial profitability in a way that is consistent with our ethical values and with respect for individuals, the environment and the wider community. We want to get better at what we do. We must take steps to become aware of, prevent and address issues that may impact our employees, suppliers, the wider community and the environment.

Multiplex is raising the standards and we need your help.
If you see something that you believe is unethical, illegal, dangerous or unfair, tell your manager or make a report through the ethics hotline. Unless you tell us about the things you see, chances are we won't find out about it until it's too late.

The Ethics hotline is independent. If you want to report something in confidence, just say so. The system is 100% secure, every report is followed up and no action will be taken against you for reporting something.

What can you report?

Fraud and theft

Unethical hiring practices

Receiving kickbacks from suppliers

Materials being over ordered and taken home

Excessive wastage

Misconduct

Modern Slavery, Human Trafficking and Forced Labour issues
